

Overview of Requirements: Pharmacists

State	Specific State/Territory information	Dispensing requirements (as per Schedule 8 requirements)
Victoria	Refer to Medicinal Cannabis	Dispensed at any pharmacy in Victoria. No additional requirements under Victorian law that a pharmacy must follow in order to dispense a medicinal cannabis product, aside from those that apply to all Schedule 4 or Schedule 8 drugs .
Tasmania	Refer to Medical Cannabis Controlled Access Scheme	Dispensed at Tasmanian Health Service hospital pharmacies
Australian Capital Territory	Refer to Prescription of medicinal cannabis products in the ACT	Any ACT pharmacy can dispense
New South Wales	Refer to Cannabis Medicines For medical practitioner and other health practitioner enquiries about using a cannabis medicine to treat a patient, contact: NSW Cannabis Medicines Advisory Service	A pharmacist can dispense a prescription for a Schedule 8 cannabis product (other than Schedule 4 cannabidiol) only if the prescriber is authorised by NSW health to prescribe it and (except for nabiximols, dronabinol and nabilone) only at the pharmacy specified in the authority and written on the prescription by the prescriber
South Australia	Refer to Information for Pharmacists document	Any SA pharmacy can dispense
Western Australia	Refer to Cannabis-based products	Any WA pharmacy can dispense
Northern Territory	Not yet released – refer to NT DoH	Any NT pharmacy can dispense
Queensland	Refer to Medicinal Cannabis	QLD Health approved pharmacies only (hospital or community)

